Contents of Volume 14

Number 1

Michael D. Olsen	1	Editorial
Features
Discussion Paper
James W. Damitio and Raymond S. Schmidgall	3	Bartering activities of the Fortune 500 and hospitality lodging firms
Articles
Glenn F. Ross	11	Management–employee divergences among hospitality industry employee service quality ideals
P. W. Kelly	25	The catering industry in the Republic of Ireland
Cherylynn Becker and Michael D. Olsen	39	Exploring the relationship between heterogeneity and generic management trends in hospitality organizations
Wansoo Hong and David Kirk	53	The assessment of labour productivity and its influencing variables in 12 conventional hospital food service systems in the U.K.
Godfrey Baldacchino	67	Total quality management in a luxury hotel: a critique of practice
Kimberley J. Harris and Debra Franklin Cannon	79	Opinions of training methods used in the hospitality industry: a call for review
Reviews
Book Reviews	97

Number 2

Brian Wise	101	Editorial
Features
Viewpoints
Kevin Nield and Gary Peacock	103	Competition in the U.K. beer market: further intervention in the U.K. beer market may produce a brand oriented market at the expense of competition and consumer choice

Number 2 cont'd

David Leslie	107	One more conference, one more paper!
Rob Silverstone	111	A response to Lyon, Taylor and Smith: the Ritzer debate continued
Howard Hughes	117	The structural theory of business demand: a rejoinder to Slattery
Phil Lyon, Stephen Taylor and and Sheena Smith	119	Is Big Mac the big threat: a rejoinder to Silverstone and Wood
Articles
Heung Chul Oh, Muzaffer Uysal and Pamela A. Weaver	123	Product bundles and market segments based on travel motivations: a canonical correlation approach
Kevin Donaghy, Una McMahon and David McDowell	139	Yield Management: an overview
Sung-Soo Pyo, Hye-Sook Chang and Kye-Sung Chon	151	Considerations of management objectives by target markets in hotel feasibility studies
M. Chris Paxson	157	State parental leave law compliance in the United States: an industry comparison
Lina Anastassova and Kate Purcell	171	Human resource management in the Bulgarian hotel industry: from command to empowerment?
Connie Mok and Yvonne Luk	187	Exit interviews in hotels: making them a more powerful management tool
Arthur Meidan and Hui-Lin Chiu	195	Hotel reservation methods — a discriminant analysis of practices in English Hotels
Call for Papers	209

Number 3/4

Abraham Pizam	215	Editorial to 14:3
E. Th. Cassee	217	Editorial to 14:4
Features
Viewpoint
Carol A. King	219	What is hospitality?
Research Notes
Zheng Gu	235	Potential impact of the proposed tax withholding on gaming operations: a utility analysis
Zheng Gu	239	The relationship between interest rate and tourism activities
Refereed Papers
Eddystone C. Nebel III, Ju-Soon Lee and Brani Vidakovic	245	Hotel general manager career paths in the United States

Number 3/4 cont'd

Jai-Fong Hsu and Susan R. Gregory	261	Developing future hotel managers in Taiwan: from an industry viewpoint
Roger J. Callan	271	Hotel classification and grading schemes, a paradigm of utilisation and user characteristics
Stanley M. Atkinson and Stephen M. LeBruto	285	Initial public offerings in the gaming industry: an empirical study
Yun Lok Lee and Nerilee Hing	293	Measuring quality in restaurant operations: an application of the SERVQUAL instrument
George G. Fenich	311	Convention center operations: some questions answered
Robert K. Griffin	325	A categorization scheme for critical success factors of lodging yield management systems
Francis A. Kwansa and Min-Ho Cho	339	Bankruptcy cost and capital structure: the significance of indirect cost
Hana Ayala	351	Ecoresort: a 'green' masterplan for the international resort industry
Lawrence Yu and Go Siong Huat	375	Perceptions of management difficulty factors by expatriate hotel professionals in China
Reviews
Book Reviews	389
Call for Papers	395
Volume Contents, Author and Key Word Indexes, Vol. 14, 1995	i	